'Most Wanted' Fugitives Captured

Two of Michigan's most wanted fugitives were captured at their Lovells hideout early Thursday morning by Crawford County Sheriff deputies, U.S. Marshalls, and Federal Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms agents from Detroit and Flint.

Gerald Allen Thayer, 36, and his wife, Dawn Marie Thayer, 29, were arrested when police received several tips regarding the couples location after the Thayers were featured in Detroit Free Press column "Michigan's Most Wanted" on Wednesday, August 29. They were taken into custody without incident at a mobile home outside Lovells. Police estimate they had been hiding out there for three months.

The Thayers are suspected as being key players in a large marijuana ring in the Flint area. Thayer was wanted for distribution of controlled substances and federal firearms charges and his wife, Dawn, was charged as a co-conspirator.

According to the Crawford County Sheriff Dept., several months ago agents raided the couples' home and confiscated large sums of drug money and more than 30 firearms.

The subjects were transported directly back to Flint by the U.S. Marshalls and will be arraigned in the United States District Court on the drug and firearms charges.

New School Bus Stop Law Begins In State

Legislation aimed at making Michigan's school bus stop law uniform on all roads and streets across the state and consistent with other states has been signed into law and will take effect August 15, 1990.

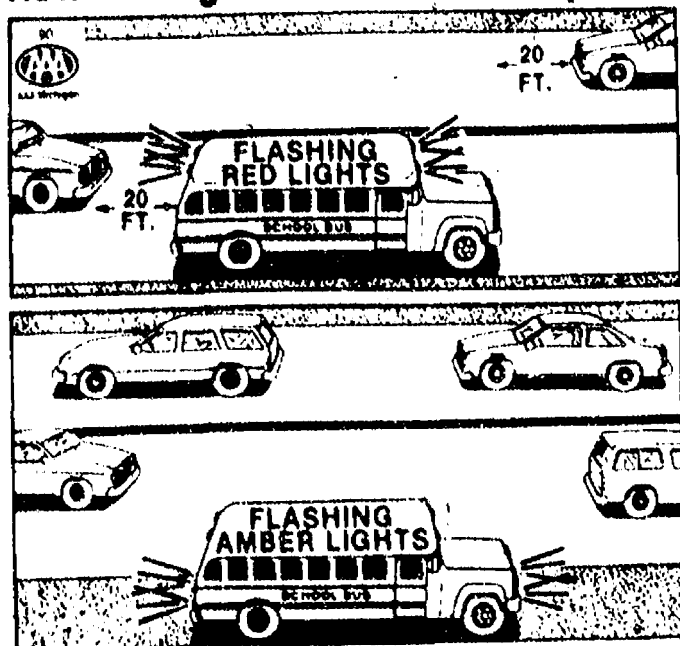

The new statute will require motorists to stop when the flashing red lights of the school bus are on and remain stopped until all students are in a safe location.

Previously the red light use was optional for cities and this caused much confusion. Now all school buses will be operated in the same manner throughout Michigan.

The current law also requires new school buses to be equipped with two overhead flashing amber lights in addition to the two traditional flashing red lights on each end of the bus. Motorists should proceed with caution and be prepared to stop when these new amber lights are flashing or when the hazard warning lights are blinking. When red overhead flashing lights are on at the bus stop all other motorists approaching the bus must stop not closer than 20 feet of the bus and remain stopped until the red signals are turned off. The law previously required the flashing red lights be turned on as the bus was moving and approaching the stop and allowed motorists to stop 10 feet of the bus when stopped.

If the bus is stopped off the roadway far enough so vehicles may pass with a full lane and the yellow lights are blinking on the bus, motorists may pass the stopped bus with caution. Motorists should never pass if their car must cross the center line.

New Michigan School Bus Stop Law

When red overhead flashing lights are activated, approaching and following traffic must stop not closer than 20 feet from the stopped school bus and not proceed until signals are off. If a bus is off the roadway and only amber hazard warning lights are flashing, motorists from both directions may proceed with caution.

BACK TO SCHOOL—Gary Fox is shown taking his children to school Tuesday morning. Greeting Wesley and Emily is their new principal, Mrs. Mick.

SCHOOL DAYS RETURN—Students at the Grayling Elementary School lined up Tuesday morning to find out the names of their teachers and directions to their classrooms. Going back to school signals the end of summer and the beginning of lunch box lunches, homework, earlier "lights out" times, and getting back together with school chums.

Beaver Creek Twp. Shows Fastest Growth in County

By Irene Pettyjohn

Beaver Creek Township experienced a 48 percent increase in its population during the past ten years, making it the fastest growing township in Crawford County. It is also the only township planning on protesting the preliminary Census Bureau figures.

Grayling and Lovells townships tied for second place with 28 percent increases.

According to the preliminary report, all seven county government units had population growths, with the City of Grayling showing the smallest increase, six percent.

Over all, Crawford County added 2,707 persons to its population since 1980, a 29 percent increase.

The following is a breakdown of the county's growth by townships:

Township	1980	1990	% Change
Beaver Creek	745	1,102	48 %
Frederic	1,136	1,273	12 %
Grayling	4,033	5,146	28 %
Lovells	324	414	28 %
Maple Forest	355	417	17 %
South Branch	1,096	1,317	20 %
City of Grayling	1,792	1,894	6 %

If the counts remain the same in the final report, it will mean increased state revenue sharing through the county.

Beaver Creek Township Clerk, Florence Nelson explained why her township intended to protest the initial census figures.

"The count in two spots, Indian Glen and Beaver Road, is not finished," said Nelson. "We're taking a house count in those areas and protesting."

She said the Beaver Creek Fire Dept. had already counted every house in the township so they had an accurate counting of all dwellings, including mobile homes. Beaver Creek conducted a mid-year census count in 1985, which also gave them a good idea of what their census numbers should have been.

According to information Nelson received while attending the Legislative Conference on Mackinaw Island, August 20 and 21, governmental agencies should be receiving about $94 per person from state revenue sharing. This is an increase from about $63 per person received by Beaver Creek Township for fiscal year 1989.

Harold Mertes, Frederic Township Supervisor, is not so optimistic about the state's promise of a bigger slice of the tax pie. He explained that state revenue sharing is based on actual taxes collected from sales, income, and excise taxes.

"If the predicted recession reduces the amount of tax collected," he said, "revenue sharing will also be reduced. If the state doesn't have it, it can't share it," he said.

Mertes said when the state was strapped a few years back, Frederic's quarterly revenue sharing payment was held up until funds were available and once the quarterly payment did not come at all.

Grayling Township Supervisor Arnold Stancil said when he first looked over the preliminary report it looked as if the Census Bureau had not given Grayling Township credit for

Elk Killed In County

An elk was found dead in the northbound lane of I-75, south of Four Mile Road, early Monday morning, September 4, by Roscommon County Sheriff deputies.

A spokesman from the Crawford County Sheriff Dept. said the elk had apparently been hit by a car. Its antlers had been cut off.

Conservation Officer Bruce Patrick said the removal of the elk's antlers was illegal and if convicted of unlawful possession, the person who took the antlers would be looking at a 30 to 180-day jail sentence, a fine of $500 to $2,000, and restitution costs of $1,500.

"Road kill permits are issued for deer and bear only," explained Patrick. He said permits are never issued for elk, wild turkeys or any other type of wildlife killed on roadways. Possession of any part of these animals constitutes unlawful possession.

Patrick said elk follow the river valley down from Otsego and Antrim counties and that two or three are spotted in Crawford County every year.

"This elk was seen near Johnson and Seven Mile roads about two weeks ago," he said.

'A Pastor On The Roof!'

The congregation of Michelson Memorial United Methodist Church enjoyed the sight of their pastor, Dennis Paulson, eating his lunch on the roof, Sunday, August 26. The pastor fulfilled his pledge to the congregation because they exceeded the $18,600 goal for a new roof, by that date.

In ceremonies during worship that Sunday, the lay leader of the congregation, Joe Wakeley, presented the pastor with a check for $20,517.19 for the roof project. Wakeley, in his presentation, noted that the congregation raised the money in just seven weeks, while carrying on two significant missions projects: raising $3,000 for victims of the forest fire, and raising $16,000 to feed almost 400 children daily, in a summer nutrition program. "It has been a very busy summer, and we should feel good for the accomplishments we have done, serving Jesus Christ in our community," he said.

Work will begin on the roof project yet this summer, and some preliminary study is underway to do a tuck-pointing project on the historic facility as well.

Members of the Michelson Church want to thank the Grayling community for its support of this project. Many contributions from persons in the community helped fund the roof and mission projects of the congregation.

Grayling Residents Help Dedicate Isle Royale CCC Camps Memorial

By Don Geiss

A group of Grayling residents traveled to Isle Royale last week to help dedicate a memorial to the three Civilian Conservation Corps Camps that were once located there. The Grayling Chapter 129 of the National Association of CCC Alumni has undertaken the leading role in placing a memorial sign at every location in Michigan where a camp once stood in the 1930's. Rev. William Fraser of Grayling is chairman of the Historic Sign Committee and a director of the North Central Region of the association.

Fraser worked for two years to obtain permission from the National Park Service to have the sign erected. Congressmen Bob Davis and Former Deputy Assistant in the U.S. Forest Service Clare Handee aided him in cutting through the red tape to get the approval for the memorial.

Isle Royale Park Superintendent William Fink told a group of about 50 people at the dedication that the CCC's were responsible for laying out the trail system and the basic docks on the island. He said at the time the three camps on the island were founded the park had been authorized but was only a wilderness.

Charles Guenther of Grayling, who is a Field Representative for the Michigan United Conservation Clubs, told the audience that the projects done nationally by the CCC have withstood the test of time. He noted that the CCC on Isle Royale had played an important part in building the first headquarters and erecting many other structures.

Fraser chaired the meeting and explained the details of the signing program. He brought with him a letter from a man who had served in one of the camps on the island. The man told of his experience repairing the one cylinder power plant and working on the saw mill motor.

Others from Grayling who attended the dedication included Dena Kolb, Hertha Laupmanis, Genevieve Fraser, Art and Helen Kerle and Don and Maxine Geiss.

Chet Atkins To Perform At Kirtland

Chet Atkins will open this year's Weyerhaeuser Company Foundation Performing Artist Series on Saturday, September 8, at 8 p.m. in the Gilbert I. Stewart Auditorium.

Chet Atkins is rightfully called "the world's most famous guitar player"; and, it should be added, the world's most versatile. The Atkins' style has long been synonymous with country music. Among his many accolades, Chet has won ten "Instrumentalist of the Year" awards from the Country Music Association.

Chet's renown, however, stretches well beyond Nashville's Music Row. He has won PLAYBOY Magazine's jazz poll four times, and was named "Best Instrumentalist of the Year" by CASHBOX Magazine 18 years in a row.

Scores of other publications—DOWNBEAT, TAPE, FRET—have paid tribute to his genius as a guitar stylist and improviser. But perhaps GUITAR PLAYERS, which accorded Chet its "Most Outstanding Guitar Player" honors, has best described his wide-ranging virtuosity, acknowledging him as "Popular Music's Most Influential Stylist."

Chet's association with country music represents but one important aspect of his six-string mastery. And Chet's recognition as a supreme instrumentalist represents but one important element of his total artistry. That recognition, along with Chet's distaste for self-promotion, has helped to overshadow his other accomplishments.

One example is Chet's talent as a songwriter, having penned with Margaret Archer, the Ray Stevens' hit, "Roxie." Atkins' fame as a producer, musician, and executive in Nashville is unparalleled. But his impact goes far beyond the capital of country music.

During his four decade tenure as chief producer for RCA Records' Nashville division, Chet helped foster more than a couple of new ages in American music—the first mature rock and roll recordings with Elvis, the first example of jazz-fusion with vibraphonist Gary Burton, and the first flowering of modern country with the Nashville Sound.

As a talent scout, Atkins signed, among others, two of country music's most important artists, Willie Nelson and Waylon Jennings, to RCA. Today, Chet's pristine tone and brilliant picking technique are held as a primary source for New Age music.

But it is understandable why Chet, who has employed his diverse talents to break past limitations, is opposed to being grouped in any one genre.

As of Wednesday, Aug. 22, Kirtland Community College announced that the Chet Atkins' concert is sold-out.

Douglas Purcell, Community Services Coordinator at Kirtland stated, "This concert is basically sold-out. We do have a small number of individual 'sit-a-lone' tickets available. We are really excited by this great turn-out." The Weyerhaeuser Company Foundation Performing Artist Series receives major support from the Weyerhaeuser Company Foundation and is supported in part by the Kirtland Foundation.

Milltown Parade Tape Available

If you were out of town, or couldn't make it to the Milltown Festival Parade, the Grayling Promotional Association has a copy of their parade tape available on a check out basis at the library. The same procedure will be used as in checking out other library tapes. The tape was made from the top of Wiebers Jewelers by Doug Nielsen and gives a good view of all parade entries as they turn the corner at Michigan and Peninsula.

GPA urges all senior citizens groups, hospice homes, and convalescent hospitals to take advantage of the tape.

Libcke Receives Career Eagle Scout Award

Dr. John H. Libcke never met former President Gerald R. Ford, astronaut Jim Lovell, FBI Director William S. Sessions, Senator Richard Lugar, or Cinematographer Steven Spielberg, but on June 5th, 1990, he joined company with these celebrities.

On that day, the Detroit Area Council, Boy Scouts of America, conferred upon Libcke, the coveted Distinguished Eagle Scout Award at a ceremony held by Troop 1022 of Bloomfield Hills. Libcke is a former Scoutmaster of this troop.

"Being recognized as a Distinguished Eagle Scout means a great deal to me," said Libcke. "I accept this honor on behalf of my associates in the medical field".

Libcke has gained fame as a Pathologist.

Libcke, Director of Laboratories at Pontiac General Hospital, earned his Eagle Scout Award in 1950 in Troop 277, chartered to Bushnell Church, Detroit.

Created in 1969, the Distinguished Eagle Scout Award is the only recognition an Eagle Scout's career distinction. Presently there are less than 1000 Distinguished Eagle Scouts in the United States.

The recipient must have attained the Eagle Scout Award a minimum of 25 years prior to his nomination, gained eminence or fame in his career and rendered outstanding service to his community.

Dr. Libcke is the son of Inge Libcke of Grayling.

Conventional Munition Testing To Be Conducted At Camp Grayling

Agreement has been reached between the Michigan Department of Military Affairs, and the Air Force Operational Test and Evaluation Center (AFOTEC), to conduct a portion of its initial operational test for the Sensor Fuzed Weapon at Camp Grayling during November and December 1990, but will cease during firearm deer season. Test set-up will occur in September and October, 1990.

The Sensor Fuzed Weapon (SFW) is a conventional munition designed for use against armored vehicles, for worldwide deployment by the Tactical Air Forces. Similar testing will be conducted at Eglin AFB, Florida, and Nellis AFB, Nevada.

Environmental concerns have been thoroughly explored and answered through a published environmental assessment. A finding of "No Significant Impact" is the final conclusion of the assessment. All environmental rules and regulations of Camp Grayling will be followed.

AFOTEC will hire, to the maximum extent feasible, available and qualified local personnel to operate and maintain equipment and to secure the test site and other facilities used by the project during test periods. The testing concern will also provide funds for all supplies, materials, and services needed to conduct the test at Camp Grayling. Purchases will be made locally insofar as is practical.

COL (Ret.) Rod Hogan will act as the liaison officer between AFOTEC and the Michigan Department of Military Affairs.

Camouflage Netting Tests Set For Camp's North Range

The Environmental Research Institute of Michigan (ERIM) based in Ann Arbor, Michigan, will be conducting research and development tests at Camp Grayling's north camp, starting today and running into the first week of October.

The purpose of the research is to conduct tests of various camouflage netting patterns in order to camouflage vehicles in the field.

Environmental concerns have been carefully explored and answered. There will be no removal of trees in the test area; no low-level military flights will be conducted; no activity will take place in or over restricted areas; even portable toilets will be used.

Economic impact in the Crawford County area will approach $400,000, including salaries for those people hired locally, and meals and lodging, vehicles rental and servicing and other rental and utility services. Twenty-seven local citizens are expected to be hired for the duration of the test.

The only change to routine uses of the military training area that may impact upon neighbors of Camp Grayling is the temporary closure of a portion of Damon Truck Trail, between North Down River Road and County Road 612. Due to safety and test activities, this road will be closed to the public three miles north of the intersection of Damon Truck trail and Wakeley Bridge Road, and 2 1/2 miles south of the intersection of County Road 612 and Damon Truck Trail. The road will be posted when closed. The closure times will be kept to a minimum, to reduce inconvenience to local residents. The cooperation of the public in this matter will be appreciated.

Col. (Ret.) Skip Hanson will serve as the liaison officer for this test, between the research firm and the Michigan Department of Military Affairs.

Nunn Transfers To Army Reserve, Promoted To Rank Of Colonel

By Major Jerold Foehl
Camp Grayling Public Affairs Officer

Colonel Melvin "Pat" Nunn, of Grayling, is in the process of a career change after almost fifteen years in the Michigan Army National Guard. He is transferring to the U.S. Army Reserve, with a promotion to the rank of colonel.

Nunn has had two outstanding careers, one in military service, the other in education. After graduation from high school in Rochester, Michigan, he earned a bachelor's degree from Central Michigan University. Through the ROTC program, Nunn was commissioned an officer in the U.S. Army, and served on active duty in 1961-62, including a tour in Europe. Later he returned to Michigan State University, where he earned a master's degree in education. Further military training was done through the Army's Command and General Staff College and the Mobilization Development Planner's Course. His most recent military assignment has been that of Deputy Post Commander of Camp Grayling, a position he has held for five years.

Colonel Nunn was awarded the Army Commendation Medal

(Second award), Army Service Ribbon, Overseas Service Ribbon, and the Michigan Broadsword Service Medal with three gold stars.

In his civilian career, Nunn has twenty-eight years of experience in education, mostly as an administrator. He is currently the principal of Frederic Elementary School.

His family is education-oriented, too. His wife, Nancy, teaches at Grayling Elementary School; their oldest daughter, Penny Bazrick, is a nuclear medical technician at Ford Hospital; daughter Holly is a police officer in Ypsilanti, Michigan; son Patrick will be a junior, studying recreation at Central Michigan University, and daughter Paula will start at Michigan State University in hotel management.

Civic involvement has been a pattern in Colonel Nunn's life. He serves in the Grayling Rotary Club, Shriners Club, is a former president of Michigan Association of Elementary and Middle School Principals, and is the state representative to the national association. He also serves as treasurer of his local church.

Colonel Nunn is currently awaiting assignment in the U.S. Army Reserve.

2 Cars Collide On Business Loop

Six people were involved in a two car accident on Tuesday, August 28, on the I-75 Business Loop in front of Glen's Market.

Cindy Lynn Cutchall, 33, Christie Cutchall, 14, and Sandra McLeod, 46, all of Grayling, and Lise Lindecker Mouthaan, 34, Tanya Mouthaan, 6, and Austin Mouthaan, 4, from Traverse City, were all taken by ambulance to Mercy Hospital. Cindy Cutchall, and Lise and Tanya Mouthaan were treated and released. The others did not require treatment.

The accident occurred at about 2:23 p.m. when Cindy Cutchall, leaving the Glen's Market parking lot, drove her car across the I-75 Business Loop in front of the Mouthaan vehicle.

Cutchall was cited by Grayling City Police for failing to yield the right-of-way.

Ronald McDonald dolls were used at the hospital to help calm the frightened and injured children.

Crawford County Resource Council Establishing New Communication Links

A Resource Council is becoming established in Crawford County to provide communication among human service providers of Crawford County.

The Crawford County Resource Council has developed a method for sharing information, referrals and communication, among human service providers in Crawford County. The council aims to enhance access of the population at-risk to available resources.

Among their goals are to facilitate collaboration among human service providers within Crawford County giving clients-in-need access to available services, and preventing duplication of services within the county.

They will identify consistent unmet needs of the population at-risk within Crawford County. They will also stimulate the development of programs which address the unmet human service needs, and promote community awareness of unmet human service needs.

The C.C.R.C. is composed of representatives from each of the human service providers within the county.

The meetings will be held on the first Tuesday, every other month, 10 a.m., at the Mercy Hospital Board Room. The next meeting is Oct. 2.

Recycling Corner

By Carol Wakeley

There is a hole in the ozone layer above Antarctica. This hole will get much bigger, which means it will spread over populated areas if we don't reduce our use of chlorofluorocarbons (CFC's), halons (their cousins), and other chemicals. The ozone layer protects us from the ultraviolet rays of the sun. It is about 25-30 miles overhead (in the upper levels of the stratosphere). In the atmosphere, ozone occurs naturally. When it is formed at ground level from the combination of nitrogen oxide and hydrocarbons, it is deadly. As it rises up, it breaks down and releases atoms that destroy the natural ozone. When this happens the earth receives more ultraviolet radiation. This means greater chances for skin cancer and cataracts.

CFC's are basically non-toxic and non flammable, which is why they are still used. Being very stable, they can last up to 150 years. A single atom of chlorine from CFC's can destroy 100,000 molecules of ozone before it falls back to earth. It is estimated that three to five percent of the fragile ozone layer is already destroyed. Motor vehicles, utility and chemical plants, are the main sources of these ozone destroying emissions. Some states have more emissions than others. The pines in California and in the eastern United States have been damaged from such an overload of emission smog. Many agricultural states suffer crop losses. Lung damage can occur in three out of five people from breathing such filthy air.

Oregon, California, and Mississippi keep a close eye on the effects of emissions. California especially, has strict auto emission standards. These states are taking steps to reduce hydrocarbons and nitrous oxides. Vermont is cutting CO2 emissions from fossil-fuel burning plants and has outlawed CFC's in new car air conditioners after 1993. All states can start cleaning up the air by supporting the conservation of energy and more mass transportation. Clean energy sources such as solar, wind, and hydropower can be used. The Clean Air Act was passed in 1970, but a lot of Americans are still breathing unfit air.

When everything is functioning normally our planet keeps a stable climate due to the natural gases such as carbon dioxide that keep heat close to the surface. Remember, in the air it is there naturally just like ozone. When it is processed on the ground, it is dangerous. The five major gases known as "greenhouse gases", that are adding to the global warming problem are:

Carbon dioxide--formed when coal, oil and natural gas are burned.

CFC's--manmade and responsible for 15-20% of global warming.

Methane--produced by landfills.

Nitrous oxide--in chemical fertilizers and from the burning of woodland fossil fuels.

Ozone--motor vehicles, power plants, oil refineries.

The climate is being altered because too much of these gases are being given off. Heat from sunlight is being retained. Earth is heating up. This is the greenhouse effect.

Trees can help this situation by storing carbon in their wood and releasing oxygen back into the air. They will do this as long as they get enough water and sunlight. During drought or cold weather months little or no carbon dioxide is absorbed. Rainforests can absorb carbon dioxide year round. That is why deforestation is such a terrible thing. A tree is cut, carbon is released and then there is no tree to replace the one cut. Carbon dioxide accounts for 50% of the greenhouse gases which is why we need our trees standing, not cut.

Ozone depletion, the greenhouse effect and air pollution all contribute to respiratory illness, damaged plant and fish species, unsafe air to exercise in. Some states are setting goals to reduce emissions by 15-20% in autos and factories -- but they are giving themselves until the year 2000 or 2010 to achieve it. Can we afford to wait that long? This is a world-wide problem that needs attention now. States will have to band together and push the government for better environmental standards. We created these problems - we have to fix them. Commit yourself to a good environmental organization. Recycle properly. Stay involved and get others involved.

Partyers Better Clean-Up Act

These acts that are so vulgar, foul, evil, ignorant and disgusting, that you insist on committing at Pere Cheney must stop. I would be a little cautious if I chose to party out there in the future, or at any other place that has been designated historical in this county. You are being watched and some night you just might be surprised if some of our concerned citizens should pop out of the woods and put a speedy end to your filthy practices.

Perhaps if you had to work a little harder for the booze, drugs and other party equipment, you would have less time and money to go around destroying heritage and property.

Try your tricks at Arlington or Pearl Harbor and see how far you get.

Better still, visit these places and think about all the people who died and are buried there so you can be free to make asses of yourselves.

By the Supreme Court and the Constitution you have the right to destroy the flag of your country, but if you have any morals you would choose to honor it. You have the right in this country to burn your flag, scorn your political leaders, ridicule the President. You have the choice to work, loaf, cheat on welfare, be a bum, or a leader or just go with the flow. This is not a case in most of the world. Wise up, sober up, and clean up your act before you find yourselves under the iron fist of a government less lenient than ours.

Some People Still Take Bible Seriously

Rev. Ron Volker is worthy of commendation for his courage in publicly expressing his religious convictions in the letter to the editor printed August 30, 1990. Just as a red-blooded American hates to see his flag burned, so also, Bible-believing Christians react to ridicule of their faith. While pastor Volker and I are of different religious beliefs, we share with all true Christians a common love for our God, the Lord Jesus Christ; His Holy Scriptures, the Bible; and His salvation through the blood of His cross.

Perhaps those members of the Rotary Club involved in "playing church" in the parade were publicly expressing what they have been privately taught by churches? Certainly it is no more wrong to play church in a parade than in a church building? Freedom of religious expression for those "playing church" is just as important as for those seriously involved in worship.

Perhaps the members of the Rotary Club were presenting a parody of what 20th century Christianity has degenerated into in America? If so, pastor Volker's letter should remind everyone that some people still take their Bible Christianity seriously, at church, at home, and in public. Maybe all of this will help destroy the mighty myth that all religions are the same, and it is wrong to criticize any religion.

Notes from the Woods

By Nancy Lemmen

"Are you going to change the name of your column now that we're moving into town?" Dave asked me recently.

We are leaving our little spot in the woods after 13 years -- more than two-thirds of our married lives -- for a new place.

In recognition of the surroundings which provided much of my inspiration, I christened this column "Notes from the Woods" when I began writing it in the winter of 1988.

Our woods, however, are now dead. They died on May 8, 1990, in what was evidently the worst forest fire ever to sweep through Crawford County. Most of our trees were cut down and ground up for wood chips this summer. Those still standing will be used for fire wood in future winters.

Now all that remains is the land. And we have deserted it for new property and a new house in town. Only the birds and the chipmunks and an occasional deer remain to keep the ferns and the wildflowers company.

Not that we thought we would always stay in our woods. Sometimes throughout the 13 years we shopped for other homes. Homes on the Mainstream or on the North Branch. Bigger houses. More expensive places. Locations closer to or farther from town.

But we never closed a deal. We always came back to our little brown cedar-sided chalet, set back on a rise and surrounded by evergreens, choke cherries and oaks.

Sometimes we even thought that we might live out the rest of our lives in our chalet in the woods. And, in a way, we did. The people Dave and I had been on the afternoon of May 8 perished later that evening along with our trees and our house and our animals.

Since then, we have begun another life. We may give the appearance of being the same people we were before, but we have changed. In spite of any planning, preparation, or care we had given to designing our earlier existence, it was taken from us. We were victimized.

Previously, we had naively and cavalierly believed that "it can't happen to us." However, "it" -- in whatever form "it" may take -- can and often does happen to all of us.

It doesn't matter that you do your job, pay your bills, clean your house, love your family, drive the speed limit, or restrict your vices. It still can happen to you.

And once it does, you are a victim -- with all the responsibilities and rights your new status entails.

Then you make some choices. You can fight, start anew, overcome, look ahead, laugh a lot. You can surrender, give up, wallow in the past, be depressed, cry often. Perhaps you do some of everything. We did. We still do.

But you can't change the past. You can create a new existence, but you cannot erase the old memories. You can bathe and bandage the wounds, but the scars will remain. And you can try all you want, but you can never undo the damage that was inflicted.

We have been given pep talks by people who are filled with hope at the sight of the ferns and grasses, the scrub oaks and the poplars which have grown fast and covered the blackened earth.

I, too, am thankful at the magnificent return of the green. But the thick beds of bracken ferns and four-foot high aspens are not enough. I want my four pets and my house and my trees back. If they could be made to regenerate too, then I would be happy. But, of course, that is not the way it will be.

There was a time when I believed that I couldn't ever bear to leave my home in the woods. Buddy lay buried out back near the garage, and I feared that he would be too alone if we left him there.

Almanack

By Richard Milliman

Middle East Action Has Support

AMERICAN FIGHTING men and women are massing again in a faraway land.

Some of those back home shudder at the prospect of yet another war. Others seem much more willing to risk American combat involvement.

It's a tough call. We must protect "American interests," the people are told. But what is "America's interest"? It seems to be spelled O-I-L.

Is that enough? President George Bush thinks so. Apparently most American people do, too. Mr. Bush has received generally favorable reaction in opinion polls reported since warfare and the threat of more warfare broke out in the Middle East.

In late August, a USA TODAY/Gannett News Service poll indicated that 60 percent of Americans support use of U.S. troops to invade Iraq.

And 55 percent back use of nuclear weapons if Iraq uses chemical weapons first.

If this poll is accurate--and it reflects what other polls seem to be finding, too--then Americans are in a fighting mood.

IRAQ'S SADDAM Hussein, relishing his instant takeover of Kuwait, then moved his troops into position on the border of Saudi Arabia, spitting threats and evil promises all the while.

Mr. Bush reacted strongly, calling on the world to join in an economic blockade, as well as general condemnation of Iraq's action, and the release of Kuwait. The United Nations agreed. So did the Soviet Union. The United States for once seems on the right side of world opinion.

But with his threats to Saudi Arabia, Hussein tipped the balance.

"A line has been drawn in the sand," Mr. Bush said, as he sent military might to Saudi soil--with Saudi agreement.

At the outset, a multi-national force aligned against Saddam Hussein was envisioned, but precious few non-American troops have been moved in so far.

ALL OF THIS preparation, of course, was in case diplomacy and other more peaceful means of settlement should fail.

Americans who respond to opinion polls obviously don't really care if diplomacy works or not. A majority is ready to fight.

One who is not so sure is the mother of a sailor, on his way to potential combat. As quoted in The Lansing State Journal, she observed:

"They want troops sent in when American lives can be lost over pennies at the gas pump. When it's your own son, it makes it seem like it's really not worth that."

If "pennies at the gas pump" is the only question involved in this developing world crisis, then this worried mother makes an excellent point.

AMERICAN HELP WELCOMED--Testimony from one who was there at the time attests to the wisdom of Mr. Bush's quick actions in the crisis.

Michelle Tobin-Saud, Lansing native who married a Kuwaiti citizen while both attended Michigan State University, was at their Kuwaiti home when the Iraqi troops took over. The family--including three young sons--had a harrowing experience fleeing to safety across the desert to Saudi Arabia, with mother and sons finally making it back to Michigan.

"The whole country (Kuwait) was eaten in two hours," Ms. Tobin-Saud recently told a Rotary audience in describing her flight.

Early American involvement was vital, she indicated. "Maybe we should have kept our (America's) noses out," she said. "But what would have happened if we had kept our noses out?"

Ms. Tobin-Saud thinks she knows what would have happened "if America hadn't got involved as quickly as it did." She said there was "no doubt" that Saudi Arabia, Bahrain, and the United Arab Emirates "would be Iraq right now."

Is American military action in the Middle East proper? A lot of Americans believe it is.

But my friend Kathleen put my fears to rest when she suggested that Buddy's natural resting place was right there in a grave on the 13 acres where he had spent nine of his ten years. And I reason the same for my other dogs and cat. Pinehurst was their home throughout most of their lives; it will continue to be their home in death.

Another friend, Paul, once read an essay entitled, "Where To Bury A Dog." The author's conclusion was that, while any of several sites might be chosen, the real place that you bury a dog is in your heart.

So it is for my Jody, Missy, Murphy and Ally. Their physical graves were dug the morning of May 9 with the metal remains of a shovel whose wooden handles had burned off.

But their actual graves were dug with a stake in my heart on that same morning. And perhaps it is only a slight exaggeration to say that with nearly every breath I draw I feel the pain of the stake entering and leaving my chest.

There will be other pets. Just this evening we scouted the new yard for a spot to build a kennel. But our dead animals will never be replaced. Or forgotten.

And it is the same for the rest of our lives back in the woods: Gone are most of the perennials given to us by friends and relatives, some now dead.

Gone are the photographs that recorded our lives -- alone, together, with family and friends.

Gone is the rare cane fly rod I gave Dave for his 40th birthday.

Gone is the silver dolphin bracelet he gave me after I swam with dolphins in Florida.

Gone are the antique book shelves from his aunt's home.

Gone is the wooden toy chest handmade by his father for the Christmas of 1953.

Gone is my grandma's diamond ring, my mother's sapphire. Gone is ...

"Don't look back," warned one friend.

"But it's okay to take a peek once in a while," counseled another.

Most of the time I look at the life we lost through a protective shield. It is made of glass, so I can see through it clearly, but it is thick -- perhaps six feet -- to keep my memories at a safe distance.

And both Dave and I have developed individual coping systems. Otherwise, the temptation to dissolve in tears and cries of grief -- which strikes so often, so suddenly and so randomly -- would horrify those who wish happiness, peace and a sense of hope for us.

For them -- and for those who are simply tired of our sadness, our repetitive stories, our "if onlies," -- we try to remember what "normal" behavior is and act that way most of the time.

Only when we are alone, or with each other, or with the few people who can handle our sorrow, do we allow our new selves to emerge.

Well, anyway.

Perhaps this will be the final fire column. Now that we're moving, maybe it's time to sweep away the ashes from the past and begin a new outlook.

I thought about Dave's suggestion. Maybe I'd change the name of the column to something like "A View of the River" or "From the Backwaters." But I guess I'll just leave it the same.

The column itself has sort of taken on a life of its own, and even if the name doesn't precisely express where I'm writing from, it represents an area and a point of view. And it affords some needed stability.

So, "Notes from the Woods" it has been and will continue to be.

Let's Talk About It By Joe Murphy

Once again our armed forces are being called upon to defend and protect the lands of others. I know we are all praying that this does not develop into a shooting war. Some say that this is a war to protect the big oil companies and we should not interfere over there. But what gives a madman the right to simply take over other countries? The same thing was said about Hitler, as long as it was not their country he was taking over it was o.k. We know now that policy will not work. If when Hitler made his first move of aggression he had brought the response that is taking place now, a long bloody war could have been avoided. Hopefully this will show Hussein of Iraq that the world will not stand for such acts of aggression today. I hope by the time this appears in the paper that things have cooled off and our troops are on their way home without a shot being fired. Will the day ever come when our world will enjoy lasting peace? Pray it will.

If my efforts at writing never accomplish another thing I will feel well paid. It brought me in contact with a cousin I had never met. Some of you old timers may remember him as he attended high school here. Ransom Murphy whose father and mine were brothers wrote me a nice letter which I was overjoyed to get. His father Albert Murphy died in the flu epidemic of 1919 while Ransom was only a baby. Though my folks often spoke of him I never had a chance to meet him. I hope we can now change that by getting together soon. Thank you for your letter Ransom, it was great to hear from you. Wish you and Irene all the best.

Ransom sent me a couple of pictures of my Dad I had never seen. One picture was of my Dad while he still had two thumbs. Dad had his left thumb blown off by an old shotgun that blew up. I had my right index finger blown off because I was careless with another shotgun. When my son Mike was about three my wife caught him with a knife getting ready to cut off a finger so he would be like Dad and Grandpa.

I had hoped when I started this column to be able to get more of our local history in print. If you have spent a good share of your life in the area I would like to tell your story. Let's get together and talk about your life and get the story in print. I know folks are tired of reading about my life and times so let's do yours. Just give me a call at 348-8308 and let's talk about it.

Aunt Violet, get well, we love you.

Camp Lehman's prison population. However, after talking to census officials he was reassured they would receive the standard 1/2 credit for each of the 416 prisoners housed at the minimum security facility.

Stancil said he also questioned the 3,300 housing units credited to the township.

"We have issued 3,496 building permits during the past ten years," he said, "and at first I thought our numbers should be higher. But when Monica (Grayling Township Clerk) and I reviewed the building permits we found that some permits were four and five years old." Stancil said these permits are being renewed annually, but to date, no construction has been started at these sites.

If the preliminary figures hold Grayling Township could see an estimated $56,684 per year increase in state revenue sharing funds.

Obituaries

Eugene Case

Eugene Case, 59, died on Wednesday, August 29, 1990 at his residence. A Memorial Service will be held on Saturday, September 15, at 1 p.m., at Sorenson Funeral Home McEvers Chapel.

Survivors include: wife

Marge; three sons: Mike Case of New Port Richey, Florida, Jay Stephan, Jr. of Midland, Texas, and Douglas Stephan of Grayling; three daughters: Billie Jo Miller of Holiday, Florida, Teresa Romaniak of East Jordan, and Cheryl Baker of Grayling; one brother, Ron Case of Grayling; two sisters, Carol Steel of New Port Richey, and Doris Carr of Grayling; thirteen grandchildren; and one great grandson. The family suggests memorials be directed to Grayling Youth Boosters.

Frank Promenchenkel

Frank Promenchenkel, 94, of Grayling, died on September 4, 1990. He was born on September 2, 1896. Funeral Services will be at 1:00 on Thursday, September 6th at Sorenson Funeral Home McEvers Chapel.

In Memory Of

In memory of Gloria Huber who passed away one year ago on September 9, 1989.

I miss our talks, I miss our luncheons, our club, but most of all "Dear Friend" I miss you.

"That is why the census is so important," said Stancil. "But it is hard to get people to understand that."

Lovells Township Clerk, Cheryl Hopp, also thinks preliminary census numbers for Lovells may be low.

"We have 416 registered voters and that doesn't count the children," she said.

Hopp said she did not think the township would base a protest on the voter registration list because a person's name cannot be removed from the registration list until there has been no voter activity for five years.

"It is possible that some of the 416 names listed there could have moved from the area," she concluded.

South Branch Township Clerk Mary Mollen said she thought their count was close and that they only hoped the numbers would hold or go up on the final tally.

South Branch's 20 percent increase could mean an additional $11,136 per year.

Maple Forest Township officers are elated with their 17 percent gain.

"We were afraid we might have gone down," said Township Clerk, Susan Keene. "We hoped our population had stayed the same, but we are surprised and happy with the preliminary figures."

Keene said she hoped the figure would hold on the final report.

Both Wieland questioned the preliminary report's township and city breakdown numbers because when added together, they come up 619 persons short of the county-wide population total of 12,182.

Final and official 1990 census data will be issued to local governmental units in early 1991.

Frederic News

About 150 relatives gathered Saturday, August 18 at Otsego Township park for the Northern Weaver Reunion. Harry Sabagh and Renee Deman were the auctioneers. The youngest child was Sheryl Weaver, eldest lady George Anne Weaver from Buchanan and the eldest man Dohn Weaver. Renee Deman had the winning ticket on the quilt raffle. Those attending came from Buchanan, Oak Park, Dearborn, Belleville, Garden City, Lansing, Petoskey, Kinross, Chesaning, Niles, Muskegon, Frederic, Grayling, Gaylord, and Eagle River, Alaska.

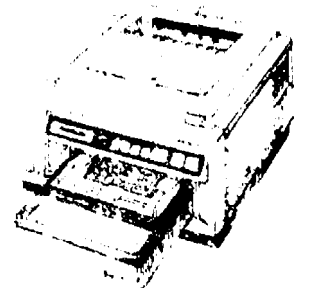

Cards of Thanks

I would like to thank a lot of good people who helped us get back in a home of our own; Cornell Insurance Company, our adjustor, William Gildner Sr., builder, his helper Curt Kitchen, Lon's Plumbing, Leonard's Electric, Gary's Drywall, Milltown Carpet, City crew, and others not known by name, also Madsen's Cabins.

I sure appreciate what they did and how they did it. Feels more like home now. Got "Dawg" back.

Thank you

Milltown Car Wash Expanding

Diane's Milltown Car Wash is one of Grayling's many expanding small businesses. Located on M-72 West and Norway Street in Grayling, it is in a prime location for servicing the multitude of cars that pass by the business each day.

Diane Tompkins, owner and manager, along with her husband Lee, opened a four-bay self serve car wash in 1981. In 1983 the operation was expanded to offer a high pressure spray wax and foam system, designed to remove heavy dirt and road film. Just last year, work began to again upgrade the car wash to include an automatic drive-through system. The "soft cloth" equipment is just that, soft cloth; it does not leave scratch marks like some brush drive-through operations can. At Milltown Car Wash, cars are handprepped before going through the automatic wash to remove heavy dirt.

There is also a wide variety of wash options, from the basic body wash, to the "super wash" that includes a wash, undercarriage wash, wax, tire cleaner, rust inhibitor, and machine dry.

Extra features to the automatic and self-serve washes are the installation of vacuums for self-serve use plus a new and unique option - "vehicle pick up and delivery service." The Pick up and Delivery is offered to individuals and businesses in the Grayling area and includes exterior and interior cleaning as well as hand waxing. Appointments may be made by calling 348-5384 or 348-1377.

Diane and her family continue to operate other business interests in Grayling, one of which is Shel-Haven Canoe Livery, west of town on the Manistee River. Diane is also a licensed Real Estate Agent in Grayling.

Diane is excited about the Grand Opening of Diane's Milltown Car Wash which is set for 1 p.m. on Friday, September 7th, and is to celebrate the new wash equipment and services. During both Friday and Saturday, September 7th and 8th, gifts and discounts will be given to customers experiencing the new Automatic "Soft Cloth System."

Just a reminder, car wash coupon books are available at the car wash throughout September. The books make great birthday and/or Christmas presents! The carwash is open from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m., seven days a week. Winter hours are from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Discounts to senior citizens are offered every Tuesday.

Chamber Update

By Deb Allen
Chamber Director

As "Summer" comes to a close the business buzz is that, all in all, it was a very good season for the tourist industry and related businesses in Grayling. According to Chamber Statistics more than 5,000 individuals inquired into Grayling as a summer destination (most of those inquiries were attributed to the promotional efforts of the Grayling Area Visitors Council). Why are people coming to Grayling... the top three requests for local attractions were, in order of popularity; historic sites/museums, state forests and local shopping. For recreational activities the top three requests were for canoeing, fishing, and golf.

Hopeful Signs To Avoid War

To the Editor:

The forces unleashed by Iraqi president Saddam Hussein's invasion of Kuwait are fear-some indeed. Not without reason is the Middle East called a "powder keg".

There are some hopeful signs that we may yet avoid all-out war in this volatile region. Cooperative effort such as the United Nations economic boycott of Iraq and occupied Kuwait and the U.S. government's role in organizing an international non-military response to the conflict are two such signs.

But, by sending massive numbers of our troops to the mid-East, we may be escalating tensions in the region which already sees the U.S. as the "Great Satan."

Indeed, Arab analysts have been quoted as saying that "Washington has triggered off all the red buttons, by challenging inherent religious and national sensitivities. American heavy presence in Saudi Arabia is viewed there as tantamount to completing foreign control over Islamic holy shrines as well as over Arab natural resources."

Let us give non-military responses time to take effect and support a regional or UN-sponsored peacekeeping presence instead. Let's leave it up to the full Security Council of the UN to decide whether or not to use military force to enforce the UN supported economic sanctions.

Moreover, let's get serious about a national energy policy and encourage alternatives to reduce our dependence on oil.

It is too dangerous a world, filled as it is with nuclear and chemical weapons, to do other than seek every means to find solutions without waging war.

Vietnam Memorial Wall Visit Was Moving Experience

Dear Editor:

My trip to Camp Grayling to see the "Vietnam Moving Wall" and find my cousin's name was a very moving experience. I stood back and observed people, toddlers to the very old, in tears, answering questions as to who were these people? Why did they die? Where is this country they died for? Many exclaimed, "What a Waste."

I came home still thinking about what had happened and what is happening now in this country. I wondered how many of those people observing "The Wall" were the parents of the young people desecrating cemeteries and burning our precious flag. In our own county this is happening, Pere Cheney is a good example. Every weekend and holiday, young people and their ORV's and four wheelers have a bash out there. They are now stockpiling old construction wood for their fires. Reefer clips, beer cans, wine and whiskey bottles can always be found out there, not to mention ladies under garments. Headstones are being broken. ORV tracks can be observed across the graves. The new gate is being destroyed because they are too lazy to just lift the latch. They have to break it because it is a barrier.

About a month ago they shinned up the flag pole, tore down the American flag and burned it. They were smart enough to leave pieces of it so we could see what they had done. They must really be proud of themselves, we're not.

While everyone is in an emotional state because of the "Moving Wall" let me help you get a little more emotional. These men died because they believe in America and what it stands for. How many of you know anything about the "American Creed?" Let me refresh your memories. It goes like this: I believe in the United States of America, as a government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign nation of many sovereign states; a perfect union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

It goes on to say (a very important part we have forgotten about in our everyday lives), I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it, to support its constitution, to obey its laws, to respect its flag, and to defend it against all enemies.

Take time right now and ask yourself, "Do I respect my flag, and do I defend it against all enemies?" I don't think we do. In today's society we believe it means flying it on national holidays, having it in parades and not flying it after sunset. To respect its flag does not include using the flag as a doormat, burning it as an act of expression and the many other acts that show complete disrespect to the American flag that means so much to so many people, not only in this country but around the world. It is a shame that those who voted against the Flag Amendment did not know that the 1918 Congress, who adopted the American Creed by an Act of Congress on April 6, 1918, included in it "To respect its flag."

The VFW Post 3736 of Grayling has posted a $500 reward to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons responsible for the recent desecration of our flag at Pere Cheney and for the destruction at the same cemetery. The VFW cannot do it alone. We need your help. Let's get together and stop this fire of desecration and destruction before it becomes a full fledged blaze like the one that tried to wipe out Crawford County on May 8, 1990.

No Counter Action Expected By Bush

There's not going to be any counter action by President Bush Americans!

It's just a big show of force by having our troops and equipment over there. We are not scaring Saddam Hussein.

There's 50,000 foreign nationals residing in Kuwait; Iraqis, Egyptians, Germans, Jews, Russians, and Japanese. Hussein knows nothing is going to be done by us.

I predict no counter action will come of this. It's just a big show of force, waste of American dollars. Maybe some good will come of the war like training, but I doubt it.

I predict a recession in American economy at the expense of the worker and elderly people!

A. High cost of gasoline will cause the people to not buy gas and autos.

B. No gas sale means no travel and a loss of tax.

C. No auto sales will mean a loss of tax.

D. Manufacturers will not build autos which will be a loss of tax.

E. Manufacturers will lay off laborers which will be an income loss of tax.

Laborers will require public assistance for another loss of taxes.

Who's really hurt by this action of our public leader? It requires a little foresight to lead our nation. I ask what has happened to the OPA, Office

Enjoy Stay In Grayling

Permit me to put in writing my expressions of appreciation to you for publishing the Camp AuSable news during June, July, and August. It has been a privilege to write a few reports and stories about the camp's summer activities for the Avalanche. Thank you for your generosity in accepting these for publication.

We at Camp AuSable enjoy shopping in Grayling. The prices are reasonable and the sales appreciated. The business men and women are most courteous and helpful.

We look forward to 1991 when we expect to return from California for another summer of camping at beautiful Camp AuSable. Until then we wish you with all our friends in the area the very best of success. God bless.

Hospice Training Begins Sept. 17

Hospice of Roscommon County will co-sponsor with Hospice of Crawford County a training series for persons interested in becoming Hospice Volunteers. The training sessions will be held at Our Lady of the Lake in Prudenville on Mon. and Wed. evenings from 7:30 p.m. to 9 p.m. beginning Sept. 17 and ending Oct. 24.

The 12 session program includes the role of the Hospice Volunteer, dealing with grief, bereavement, family systems, pain management, the interdisciplinary team, and other key educational and support material.

Hospice of Crawford County offers a program which enables ill persons to live effectively when curative treatment is no longer possible and when heroic measures to prolong life are not appropriate or desired.

Hospice Volunteers provide assistance to patients and their families by listening and supporting, promoting communication among family members, providing assistance with transportation, shopping and errands, staying with the patient while the family has some time for themselves and to provide some support for surviving loved ones in the grieving period after death.

Male and female volunteers, clerical and direct-client call volunteers, plus professional and non-professional volunteers are needed to donate several hours weekly or monthly.

Applications are available from: Hospice of Crawford County, P.O. Box 2, Grayling, 49738, or by phone at 348-5461, ext. 128.

FAMILY FUN--Viking coach Mike Branch is enjoying this season of high-school football as both of his sons scored touchdowns in opening game victories over Roscommon. Steve, left, is on the JV team and Matt quarterbacks the varsity squad.

Senior halfback Mick McKinney's three touchdown runs helped the Grayling High School varsity football team open its 1990 season with a 36-7 rout of the Roscommon Bucks.

McKinney's efforts on August 31 included a 90-yard kick-off return in the 4th quarter and two runs from the scrimmage line in the 3rd period.

Also, senior quarterback Matt Branch ran in one TD from two yards out in the 1st quarter, and senior split-end Scott Nicholas caught a 65-yard pass from Branch in the 2nd.

Matt Branch, who also performs kicking duties, scored the first four extra points, and senior fullback Dana Mirate ran the last one for a two-point conversion.

For Coach Stowers, the brightest part of the Viking offense was the blocking by his offensive tackles (junior Mark Andrus and senior Todd Thorsen), guards (junior Scott Hartman and senior Max Prosser) and center (senior Nate Ginther).

Defensively, Branch and seniors Andy Barkway, Jim Liberty and Dave Teddy "did a respectable job," and Prosser and Thorsen "played very well."

Barkway, Liberty and Thorsen led the team with four tackles each.

Roscommon's single touchdown came on a long pass in the final quarter with only minutes left in the game, to bring the score to 28-7.

The Vikings, however, answered with McKinney's impressive 90-yard kick-off return for a final TD.

Coach Stowers resisted the temptation to run up a big score against Grayling's biggest rival by benching his first string team in the last quarter.

In explaining GHS's decisive victory over Roscommon, he said that this is the first time since he came to Grayling that he has 15 or 16 players big and strong enough to play the game, as well as quite a few seniors to provide leadership.

It is also the first time that the Vikings have had a total offensive gain of over 400 yards, with GHS passing for 166 yards and rushing for 258.

Rushing leaders included McKinney, who carried the ball 13 times for a total of 121 yards; Mirate, who carried 19 times for 82 yards; and sophomore Gary, who carried five times for 35 yards.

Other highlights included 5 pass completions by Branch and a 35-yard pass on a fake punt by Teddy to McKinney.

"I've got to credit head coach Stowers," said Assistant Coach Mike Branch. "I think he prepared the team very well through excellent scouting and charting of Roscommon's previous games and scrimmages."

Added Ginther, "It felt really good to win, especially against Roscommon. Being my senior year, it felt good to beat a rival."

The Vikings will host the St. Ignace Saints on Friday, September 7. Kick-off time is 7:30 p.m.

Par for the Course

On Monday, Aug. 26, the last evening of golf for this season was enjoyed by 47 members. The women ended the season by playing scrambles with 2 teams winning with low scores of 38.

The team players were Irene Wyman, Grace Wegner and Shirley Daup; Dorothy Walker, Donna Pottorff, Shirley Rauch and Marilyn Fick. A prize was awarded to Virginia Millikin for having the most improved score on the Ringer sheet.

The new officers for 1991 are Irene Peterson, President; Nancy Glasslee, Vice-President; Dana Anderson, Secretary/Treasurer.

For the end of the year party the club served barbecued chicken, baked potatoes, coleslaw and rolls.

Viking Girls Open New Conference Action Thursday Against Onaway

"Anytime a team comes to Grayling, we're going to give them a run for their money," said Grayling High School girls' varsity basketball team coach Howard Lehti in a pre-season interview.

The Vikings tested their skills on the home court against the Roscommon Bucks in their season opener on September 4.

Their first conference game is at Onaway on Thursday, September 6, with the JV team playing at 6:15 p.m.

Six senior letter winners will head up the 1990 Viking basketball squad. Highlighting the list are returning starters, Nicki Morrill and Heather Stephenson.

Morrill, an All-Conference forward her junior year, will also be instrumental in defense this year — particularly in rebounding, if GHS is to be successful in that area. At 5 feet, 11 inches, Morrill is the best leaper on the team, said Lehti.

Stephenson, an All-Conference forward both her sophomore and junior seasons, was a big part of the GHS offense last year, and is expected to continue in that role in 1990.

Other senior letter winners include: point guard Claudine Allen, a good ball handler and three-point shooter; forward Lisa Jo Barber, who, as the team's quickest player, is expected to be a help on defense; and guard Shannon Hinds, whose offense has improved dramatically since last year.

Senior Krista Wyman has been unable to practice with the team due to a knee injury. Lehti hopes she can rejoin the squad in about three weeks.

Four juniors moved to varsity from the 1989 junior varsity squad: forward Andrea Austin, a hustler with good defensive abilities; guard Cindy Fedewa, a quick defensive player with an improved shot.

Also, Brenda Moshier, who, at five feet, 11 inches, will be a key person in the Viking rebound attack this year; and guard Michelle Parker, a quick and good defensive player who has an improved shot this year.

Sophomore Elissa Cox, a guard whose scoring abilities bring her to the varsity team, will be working on improving defensive skills this season.

Freshman Angie Mertes, a good ball handler who can drive in either way, will also be getting experience at point guard in 1990.

Coach Lehti said that while he depends a lot on his senior players, he called up the young players to balance his team and to prepare for next year, when there will be only four returning seniors.

Meanwhile, Lehti's goals for this season are two-fold: He hopes to have his girls gain strength and experience in the 10 non-conference games, several with larger Class B schools.

And he wants to "be competitive" in the new conference, which is composed of all Class C high schools (Lincoln-Alcona, Onaway, Rogers City and Whittemore-Prescott).

JVs Beat Bucks Handily 22-7

"I didn't think we'd do as good as we did because we were inexperienced," said Grayling High School junior varsity football team quarterback Mike Kirimo. "I probably played quarterback a total of four minutes last year."

Nevertheless, good they were, in the JV team's 22-7 defeat of the Roscommon Bucks in the season opener on August 30.

"Kirimo threw the ball very well," added Coach Chuck Spencer.

Two of Grayling's three touchdowns were on passes thrown by sophomore quarterback Kirimo — one, a 60-yard throw to sophomore split-end Mitch McMillan, and the other, a nice 30-yard toss to sophomore halfback Steve Branch.

Sophomore halfback Jason Brigham rushed for the third GHS touchdown in the first period of the game. The two TDs scored on passes came in the second quarter.

Grayling made two of its three attempts at extra point conversions, bringing the half-time score to 22-0.

Roscommon scored on a pass interception in the third period and made the extra point kick, to bring the score to 22-7. Neither team scored in the fourth quarter.

Coach Spencer reported that the GHS JV team has beaten the Bucks for the past three years. "They're always fairly equal to us talentwise," he said. Spencer had praise for his two halfbacks, Branch and Brigham, who both "ran the ball very well."

He added that the defense played a strong game and "weren't scored on." Good defensive performances were turned in by sophomores Ryan Frederick, Nick Hebekeuser, Loren Lugvick, Mike Spencer and freshman Chris Wolcott.

"The pass coverage was excellent," Spencer continued. "Roscommon wanted to throw, but most of the time their receivers were covered."

Last year the GHS JV team posted a 5-4 season record. Their goal for 1990 is to "play a little better every game," said Coach Spencer.

Spencer is responsible for the defensive line, while coach Fred Wolcott handles the offensive team.

The next game for the Vikings is at St. Ignace on September 6. Kick-off is scheduled for 6:30 p.m.

The Affluent Have Gotten Younger

In 1984, 45% of those in households with incomes of $50,000 and over were under 45 years old. By 1988, that percentage had risen to 50%. In contrast to the overall aging trend in the U.S., this suggests the young are increasing their ranks among the affluent more quickly than the old. Greatest among the affluent are 35-to-44 year olds.

Last Chance For 4-H Soccer Fall Registration

Final sign up days for 4-H Soccer will be Wednesday and Thursday, September 5 and 6.

Teams will be drawn the evening of September 6 and absolutely no registrations will be accepted after teams are formed. Youth can be registered at the Cooperative Extension Service (in the basement of the Court House). Any adult interested in helping with the soccer program can contact the Cooperative Extension Service at 348-2841, Ext. 264. The registration fee is $7 per child.

Shin guards are mandatory for all players and mouth guards are recommended for players who wear braces.

This is the seventh season for 4-H Soccer. Soccer is open to all youth ages 6 through 18. To be eligible a youth must be at least six years old by December 1, 1990.

Lovells Extension Meets Sept. 12

After a busy summer involvement in the Heritage Days Celebration, the Lovells Extension is ready for an interesting year. The subject matter is focused on all aspects of recycling.

The first meeting will be Wednesday, September 12, at the Township Hall Pavilion at 11:45 a.m.; bring a sack lunch. The group will visit the Crawford-Olds Recycling Center at 2 p.m. for a tour.

Lovells Extension, the only M.A.E.H. group in Crawford County, welcome anyone interested in a study group to join us.

3 receive CMU Degrees

Three Grayling residents, Jody Hinkle, Pamela Lewis, and Scott Trudeau, received Central Michigan University degrees in August.

Hinkle received a bachelor of science degree in education with a major in science. She was graduated magna cum laude. Lewis received a bachelor of science degree with a major in health care administration management and supervision. Trudeau received a bachelor of applied arts degree with a major in design/graphic design art.

FLOWERS, VEGETABLES, & PEE WEE, THE BIG DOG--Mercy Manor resident Bertha Carnahan (right, front) pets Pee Wee, a large seeing-eye dog that has been adopted by Mercy Manor. Debbie Larson, director of Long-Term Care Service, (right, back) says the well-behaved dog is a great addition for residents. Betty Mahaffy, Clinical Nurse Manager, (left, back) takes Pee Wee to her home at night. Mercy Manor resident Elizabeth Johnson (left, front) is shown next to some of the flower beds planted and cared for by the staff. Herb Lawrence, of Grayling, along with assistance from Camp Shawono boys, put in the flower beds and planted vegetables for the residents to enjoy.

Army Careerman Honored For 40 Years

Harry S. Truman was President when Charlie Davis joined the Army. SFC. Davis was called a cadet when he joined Company D ("Dog Company") of the 425th Infantry in Detroit in 1950. Davis hadn't even graduated from high school yet when he was made an ammo bearer for the old .30 calibre watercooled machine gun.

Davis recalls, "The first couple of years we went to Camp Grayling we were hauled up there on trains in the day coaches and were they crowded; we had to sleep in them too. We had trucks but they were only for hauling supplies around Camp Grayling and nothing else. We would walk to the ranges, fire, march back for lunch and march back out to finish firing."

"Everything was lined up neat and pretty back then; the first tent peg started at the orderly room and the last one stretched way out parallel with engineer tape connecting the two; all the other tents were lined up straight with the first and last. Rocks were white washed and used for tent markers."

"No one was allowed to bring any civilian clothes along and only a few officers could bring their POVs (cars). Middle weekend started off with a show-down inspection on Saturday morning with everything laid out on your bunks neat and clean. We had coils but our mattresses were filled with straw and we had to put our two wool blankets over them and make them look neat, square and straight. Half of the company would be given passes for Saturday night but had to report back in by 11 p.m. and couldn't go outside a fifty-mile radius from camp."

"Sunday morning we were all marched to the hillside where the fire station is now and attended Sunday services on the lawn in our khakis. Sunday afternoon the rest of the company got the day off. Four days and three nights of the second week we would march out to the field and do field maneuvers carrying everything we had on our backs." "When it was finally time to go home the trucks would haul our gear back down to the train tracks and we would march down and load back up for the trip home."

Charlie made his way through the enlisted ranks from cadet to first sergeant. He went from recruit to corporal in his first two years. Davis started with the 425th Infantry and stayed with them when they were reorganized into the 225th Infantry. He has served with the 156 Signal Battalion and was the first sergeant of HHC, 156 Signal Company for five years, from 1974 to 1979.

SFC Davis has been the service support specialist for the 72d Support Brigade of Jackson for the last three years and hopes to retire from there in July, 1993, when he turns 60. Davis is working on his associate's degree, is married and lives in the Jackson area.

This year at Annual Training in Grayling, Charlie Davis was presented his 40-year service pin by his first commander, Lieutenant Colonel (ret.) Garland H. (Bud) Joyce, a resident of Grayling and member of the Chamber of Commerce.

Mercy, NMHS Show Intent To Affiliate

A letter of intent to affiliate was signed Thursday, August 23, by officials at Northern Michigan Health Services (NMHS) and Mercy Health Services North.

"The Northern Michigan Health Services and Mercy collaboration will link our two health care organizations more closely than ever before," said Darrell Milner, Executive director of NMHS. "Our affiliation means patients in this area will have direct access to the full complement of health services provided by both facilities."

NMHS operates two primary health care centers, Houghton Lake Health Services in Houghton Lake and Northpoint Clinic in Roscommon. Four family practice physicians, one internist and three physician assistants provide direct patient care services on a fulltime basis. In addition, an Urgent Care Clinic at Houghton Lake Health Services is open daily to provide service on a walk-in-basis for minor injuries and acute illnesses that can't wait for appointments. Community education and a geriatric assessment program are two other key services offered by NMHS.

Mercy Health Services North, Mercy Hospitals Cadillac and Grayling, offer complete adult medical/surgical and outpatient services to area residents. Mercy Manor, located adjacent to Mercy Hospital/Grayling, is a 40-bed long term care facility with basic and skilled nursing home beds. Physicians practicing with NMHS are on the active medical staff at Mercy Hospital/Grayling.

"Each organization has strengths that can be shared to create a comprehensive community health care system," said Dennis Renander, President and Chief Executive Officer of Mercy Health Services North. "We will work together in such areas as physician recruitment, specialty services and programming to provide coordinated health services to patients."

SHELTER PUPPIES—Caring for a pet can teach children a valuable lessons about responsibility; what it means to be depended upon by another living creature and how it feels to be accepted unconditionally as pets do to the master who cares for them. The Crawford County Animal Shelter has puppies from six weeks to three months old available for adoption. Hours are Monday through Friday from 1-3 p.m. and weekends from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Pet Care Tip

The National Education Humane Society recommends that you use a veterinarian to care for sicknesses and to prevent other ailments from befalling your animals. Rabies, distemper, and feline leukemia shots are important to the well-being of your creatures. Maintain checks to see if your pet has internal or external pests and parasites.

About Your Social Security

People who have Medicare medical insurance (Part B Medicare) should know about an important change in the way claims are submitted. Len Connolly, Social Security manager in Traverse City said today.

Beginning September 1, 1990, the Medicare medical insurance claim must be prepared and submitted by the service provider—the doctor, laboratory, medical supply company, or other party giving the service, said Connolly.

In the past, Medicare beneficiaries had to submit a form requesting payment unless the doctor or service provider accepted "assignment." (Assignment means that the doctor or other service provider accepts the Medicare-approved charge as the total charge.) But starting September, the doctor or other service provider must send in the claim even if they don't accept assignment.

Connolly stressed that the service provider cannot charge for preparing and submitting the Medicare claim. "If a service provider refuses to prepare and submit the Medicare claim, or charges a fee for doing so, the beneficiary should contact his or her Medicare Carrier." The address and phone number are listed in the Medicare Handbook. In this area, callers from (616) area code may call 1-800-442-8020, and from (517) call 1-800-322-0607, toll-free.

Grayling Dowell and Tie Plug Co. will resume operations after being closed for two weeks for repairs.

Wednesday being the birthday of Mrs. J.K. Hanson, Mrs. H.A. Bauman entertained several of her friends at luncheon at the dining hall at Lake Margrethe.

Ernie Parsons of Bay City has been in the city visiting his sister, Mrs. Marius Hanson.

School opened Tuesday with an enrollment of 170 in high school, kindergarten starts out with 44 little beginners, 1st grade has 66 enrolled. The other grades range with an average enrollment of 35. Quite a number will be added to this attendance. Everything points to a very successful year for the Grayling schools.

The corn crop in Crawford County is wonderful this year. About every farmer that put in a crop is boasting of a yield he is going to have—8 to 10 foot stalks are common and 10 to 12 inch ears with solid rows of kernels are not unusual.

THE AVALANCHE

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Carr of Bay City spent the weekend here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milo Case and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carr.

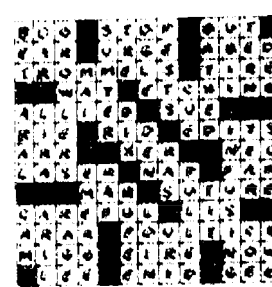

The Kolka twins, Marguerite and Dorothy, returned home with their brother, Alvin, after spending a month with their sister, Mrs. Walter Turbin.

Your Horoscope

Forecast Period: 9/9-9/15/90

- ARIES
Mar. 21-Apr. 19
Promoting a new moneymaking idea to one at the top could be profitable for all, and brings some degree of fame.
- TAURUS
Apr. 20-May 20
Emphasis is on money, and the things it can buy. A blustery attitude can cost you.
- GEMINI
May 21-June 20
Observe good driving rules in your travels. Be alert to what's going on before, behind, and on each side of you.
- CANCER
June 21-July 22
A long sought goal in the business world is within reach. An angel behind the scenes extends a helping hand.
- LEO
July 23-Aug. 22
A social affair is a smashing success. With Leo at the helm, could it be anything less?
- VIRGO
Aug. 23-Sept. 22
Status seekers are going along for the ride. Take charge before things get out of hand.
- LIBRA
Sept. 23-Oct. 22
News comes to you from a distance that sheds a different light on things. Look for the real story.
- SCORPIO
Oct. 23-Nov. 21
An investment opportunity is worth further study. Aspects indicate a gain is likely, perhaps in gift form, or a refund.
- SAGITTARIUS
Nov. 22-Dec. 21
Partnership funds are secure, with no cause for concern. All parties concerned should be kept informed. Pay bills promptly.
- CAPRICORN
Dec. 22-Jan. 19
Be sure to wear protective headgear when visiting a "hard hat" work area. A bump on the head could be hazardous to your health.
- AQUARIUS
Jan. 20-Feb. 18
New and progressive ideas come on screen for you to review and use or discard, depending on their value.
- PISCES
Feb. 19-Mar. 20
Inspect electrical connections at home. Look for potential trouble spots in tools and equipment.

MORTGAGE SALE

Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by FISHCREEK ASSOCIATES #2, a Michigan Co-Partnership, of 1305 East 8th Street, Traverse City, Michigan, Mortgagee, to THOMAS E. SMITH, a single man, of 9061 West Torch Lake Drive, Rt. #1, Box 819, Rapid City, Michigan 49676, Mortgagee, dated the 9th day of May, A.D. 1983, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds, for the County of Crawford and State of Michigan, on the 6th day of July, A.D. 1983, in Liber 16 of Crawford County Records, on page 622, which premises subject to such mortgage, were purportedly conveyed by Warranty Deed to Theodore H. Siegmund, on the 28th day of September, 1984, on which mortgage there is claimed to be due, at the date of this notice, for principal and interest, the sum of TWENTY SIX THOUSAND FIVE HUNDRED FIFTY AND NO/100 DOLLARS ($26,550.00), together with 1987, 1988 and 1989 real property taxes.

And no suit or proceedings at law or in equity having been instituted to recover the debt secured by said mortgage, or any part thereof. Now, therefore, by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage, and pursuant to the statute of the State of Michigan in such case made and provided, notice is hereby given that on THURSDAY the 27th day of SEPTEMBER, 1990, at 9 o'clock a.m., said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale at public auction, to the highest bidder, at the Crawford County Building at 200 West Michigan Avenue, in the City of Grayling, Crawford County, Michigan (that being the building where the Circuit Court for the County of Crawford is held), of the premises described in said mortgage, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the amount due, as aforesaid, on said mortgage, with the interest thereon at Twelve per cent (12%) per annum and all legal costs, charges and expenses, including the attorney fees allowed by law, and also any sum or sums which may be paid by the undersigned necessary to protect its interest in the premises.

Said premises are described as follows:

Part of Section 2, Town 25 North, Range 2 West, South Branch Township, Crawford County, Michigan, more fully described as: Beginning at the Southeast corner of said Section 2, thence North 89 degrees 14' 14" West, 2607.44 feet along the south line of said Section 2 to the South quarter corner of said Section 2, thence North 89 degrees 14' 14" West, 54.59 feet, along said South line; thence North 0 degrees 33' 20" East, 1319.76 feet, thence North 89 degrees 15' 10" West, 178.15 feet, thence North 0 degrees 33' 20" East, 1362.36 feet, thence South 89 degrees 23' 00" East, 1520.35 feet, thence South 0 degrees 33' 08" West, 354.80 feet; thence South 89 degrees 14' 52" East 1320.41 feet, thence South 0 degrees 34' 17" West, 2330.88 feet, along the East line of said Section 2, to the Point of Beginning.

Subject to and together with a 33 foot wide easement for ingress, egress and the installation and maintenance of public and private utilities, the centerline of which is described as being in Section 2, Town 25 North, Range 2 West, South Branch Township, Crawford County, Michigan, more fully described as: Beginning at the East end of the centerline of Oxbow Bend Road (in the recorded plat South Branch Ranch No. 1), said Point of Beginning being 875.43 feet north of and 1937.02 feet West of the South quarter corner of said Section 2, thence approximately South 51 degrees 47' East, 1370 feet plus or minus, along an existing trail road to a point which is 16.5 feet North of the South line of said Section 2, thence South 89 degrees 14' 14" East, 3452 feet plus or minus, along said easement centerline (said line being 16.5 feet North of and parallel with the South line of said Section 2), thence North 0 degrees 34' 17" East, 3305 feet along said easement centerline (said line being 16.5 feet West of and parallel with the East line of said Section 2) to the Point of Ending of said easement centerline.

The redemption period shall be six (6) months from the date of such sale.

FIRE VICTIM HELP--Rev. Robert Gordon, president of the AuSable Ministerial Association, receives a $500 check from Crawford County Avalanche editor Jon Thompson that will be used to assist a family with losses from the May 8th forest fire. The Ministerial Association dispersed about $77,000 to fire victims. The $500 was raised by the Avalanche publishing and selling a special forest fire reprint issue.

Michigan Model Meditation?

On pages 260, 261 of the Michigan Model of Comprehensive School Health Education, Grade 7 Module 2 Lesson 7 Student Handout entitled "Basic Relaxation Techniques" we find some techniques in breathing recommended: "sit in a comfortable position in a straight backed chair; knees and elbows bent slightly, back and neck straight...Fill your stomach...hold it." Under "Breathing like the Wind" we read, "As you breathe out, whisper a sound 'Haaah'...let it out as you say 'Haaah' as you exhale..." "Repeat 5 more times, each time describing the feeling of relaxation as lightness, calm, peaceful, tingling, etc." "I'm now going to count backwards from ten and with each count you will deepen your state of relaxation. 10...9...8...you feel very restful and serene...7...6...you can feel the relaxation deepening...5...4...your body could float away, you feel so very, very, light and relaxed...Your mind is alert and clear, but you are only aware of the deep sensation of calmness...3...2...1..." "Now very slowly we are going to end this experience. Begin to picture yourself opening your eyes and coming back to your everyday world." (Hypnosis??) We shall now quote from pages 81, 82 of "Buckland's Complete Book of Witchcraft", Lesson Seven: Meditation, Dreams and the Minor Sabbats: Under posture, "...keep your spine straight...sit in a comfortable, straight-backed chair...spine straight - with your feet flat on the floor...Sit comfortably...without slumping or allowing the spine to curve." "Breathe deeply in...Breathe in...until the lungs are full...exhale through mouth with a "Hah!" sound. Do this three times...feeling the stomach balloon out as you do so." "Now, with your body relaxing and breathing normally but deeply, concentrate your thoughts until you can imagine your whole body encased in a globe of white light. Feel the luminous energy charging your whole body...Now focus your attention on your toes..." As we get into ASC (Altered states of consciousness) and QR (Quieting reflex) we may not say the Michigan Model is forcing children to accept either New Age or Witchcraft ideas. However the Office of Equal Employment Opportunity has stated that adult employees are not to be forced to participate in such techniques against their beliefs. QR is a form of Biofeedback and becomes an automatic response within the individual once acquired. Dr.

Stroebel's book lists a number of medical precautions and insists upon a physician's approval under certain conditions, and a signed contract before an adult can proceed.

GRANDPARENTS... Our Living Legacy

Did you ever wonder what makes grandparents so special? Grandparents represent an especially unique combination of qualities. They possess insight and patience, born of many years of the trial and error of child rearing. They have learned what is important and what is not...the knowledge of which situations warrant genuine concern and which will be solved by time alone.

Grandparents have learned the importance of a sense of humor. They can laugh at life as only those who have experienced it can. They have learned how to put life into perspective. Grandparents know how to listen and to guide their grandchildren gently and lovingly through the turmoil of youth.

Grandparents represent tradition and stability in an unstable world. They are living proof that the challenges of life can be conquered after all.

Grandparents represent love and warmth. They give us so much. This Grandparents Day let us give them our thanks and our appreciation for all the things they are, and let us remember them in our prayers as we worship this week.

Sunglasses for Windows

It's like putting sunglasses on a window, says David Bibler, about applying Lumar, solar-controlled window films.

The Micro-thin, polyester-mylar films are virtually invisible when properly applied to existing windows.

But the films block up to 80 percent of the heat in summer and retain up to 65 percent of the heat in winter, says Bibler, co-owner of Quality Window Tinting in Traverse City, Grand Rapids and Kalamazoo, with his wife, Judy.

Three types of films — reflect-tive, non-reflective and Low E series are available, all of which virtually eliminate the ultra-violet rays which cause sun rot, sun fading and sun glare. These films are all covered by a 7-year warranty.

Quality Window Tinting also installs solar control film on motor homes and passenger vehicles. All installations come with a lifetime guarantee.

We're still Grayling State Bank, only a little less of a mouthful.

If you've been paying attention lately, you may have noticed some changes going on at Grayling State Bank. Our signs, stationery—everything that bears our name—now reads GSB. Nothing mysterious here, just a little bit easier to say than Grayling State Bank.

You'll also have noticed that our logo now mentions that we're an affiliate of Citizens Banking Corporation and includes the Citizens Banking Corporation red ball. That's so our customers will know that wherever they see a bank with that mark—in Flint, or Saginaw, or Bay City, or Midland, or Standish, and lots of other places—in 1991 they'll be free to do their banking, just as if they were in Grayling. Flexibility like that is, we think, an important new benefit to our customers.

Aside from that, everything's pretty much the same at Grayling State Bank or GSB—same people, same great services, same attention to our customers. Only a little less of a mouthful.
